Nowadays, opportunities are growing for women due to diversity hiring drives. What is your take on the effectiveness of such drives?

Many males see this diversity hiring as a threat to their jobs. They also comment on this as unfair and say that underserving women get jobs due to diversity hiring. And these women are not given due respect at their workplace.

Yesha Joshi 10:18

Ques for @Preeti: Coping with gender bias is hard, do you feel after all these years would you have chosen a different path to deal with your manager rather than resigning?

Faculty of Pharmacy Dharmsinh Desai University

Programme/Event Summary

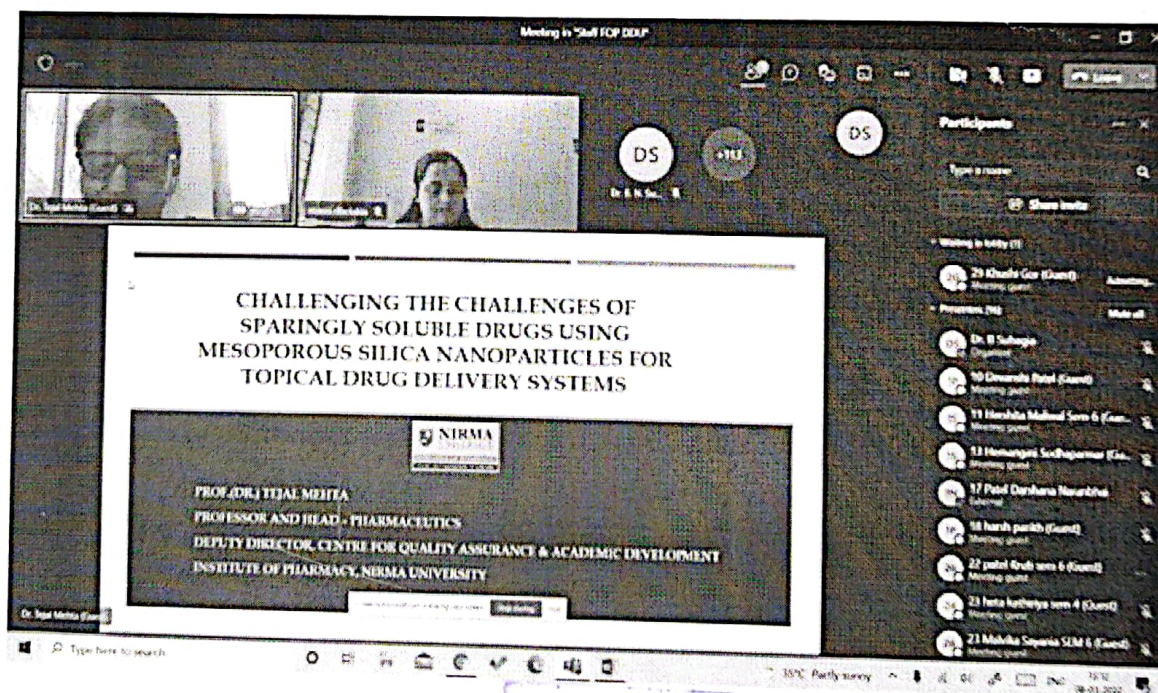

Dharmsinh Desai University (DDU) formerly known as DDIT, was founded in 1968 by respected educationists, social workers, and the Member of Parliament Late Shri Dharmsinh Desai. In the year 2000, it earned the status of Deemed University by the Government of India, in recognition of its standards in academia. In April 2005, the Government of Gujarat declared the institution as a State University. D. D University is approved by the UGC Under sections 2f and 12B. It has trained scientists & engineers to provide leadership in academia and industry since 1968. Its students have exhibited a drive for professional excellence throughout their careers. Women cell, DDU, constantly working on the number of events like webinars related to cybercrime and prevention, gynaecological disorders to provide the awareness in girls, talks to celebrate success of women scientists, sensitization workshops to encourage gender equity in institutions etc. This webinar was designed especially for the young faculty members, Research Scholar, innovators & students in the field of Pharmaceutical Sciences and related subject areas. The webinar was proposed to discuss how advanced research is conducted by women innovators in pharma field. Information gathered through collaborative public research can be transformed into the precious knowledge essential to deal with the unmet need for the development of pharmaceutical products. The major objective of the webinar was to focus on the contribution of women scientists not only in education but also in the innovation of patentable products for the betterment of the community. The conference was organized by inspiring from leadership of eminent women scientist in pharma academic sector and provided brain storming platform to all researchers of pharma field. Total 203 participants have successfully completed this seminar. The eminent scientists have guided the all participants with their knowledge and words of wisdom.

We had invited well known Yoga acharya Mrs.Sheela Shah as our instructor for this training. She began with the motivation session on YOGA & Meditation on the 11th June 2022, that was followed by daily practice of YOGA for one hour in the morning 8 to 9am. She was the source of motivation and guidance for us. Students were trained to do basic YOGA practices including various Asanas, Pranayam, Surya namaskara, & Meditation. The goal was to help them to relieve their stress of study, increase their concentration & motivate them to make YOGA a routine practice. After a weeks training period, on 21st June International Yoga Day was celebrated at the NDDFMSR with the performance of all the learned YOGA practices. It made huge impact on the students as they participated in the event with great enthusiasm. Mrs.Sheela was given a memento & certificate of appreciation for the efforts she made in teaching us the YOGA.

Programme Summary

Ragging is originally a western concept and was originally a form of social interaction between seniors and juniors in schools and colleges. However, these interactions, have taken a very cruel, inhuman and anti-social, form at times. Even some of the highly reputed colleges and institutions have a terrible history of ragging. Ragging has social, physical, political economic academic and physiological dimensions.

Faculty of Pharmacy in association of Women Cell, Dharmsinh Desai University had successfully organized expert lecture on “Measures against Ragging in an Educational Institute” on 26th November, 2022. The eminent personalities & expert had enlightened this session effectively.

Total 110 participants and Faculty members were highly encouraged and fully appreciated by the knowledge provided by eminent speakers.
